TNT Sports Unveils Most Comprehensive NBA All-Star Content Lineup Ever Across TNT, TBS, truTV, Max & Bleacher Report.

TNT SPORTS

NBA on TNT

In its 39th year of NBA All-Star coverage, TNT Sports' networks and platforms will be the exclusive home to the biggest moments of the NBA's ultimate celebration of basketball.

Fans will have multiple viewing experiences as part of TNT Sports' most expansive NBA All-Star content line-up ever, including truTV rolling out more than 35+ hours of primetime sports programming, as part of a week-long celebration leading into NBA All-Star 2024.

The 73rd NBA All-Star Game on TNT, TBS, truTV & B/R Sports on Max

The NBA All-Star Game, presented by Kia on Sunday, Feb. 18 at 8 p.m. ET — simulcast across TNT, TBS and B/R Sports on Max — will feature Brian Anderson returning as the play-by-play voice, alongside

Reggie Miller (his 17th time providing NBA All-Star Game analysis) and Candace Parker, making her second NBA All-Star Game commentating appearance. Allie LaForce will provide sideline reporting throughout the telecast, her fourth time in that role.

Alongside the traditional telecast, fans will also be able to tune into truTV and B/R Sports on Max for the NBA All-Star Game ALTCAST presented by Jordan Brand, hosted by Taylor Rooks alongside Draymond Green and Charles Barkley sharing their opinions and insights like only they can. Jamal Crawford will also contribute as a roaming reporter from the sidelines, with additional special guests joining throughout.

During the game, fans will also be able to enjoy a complementary live stream experience on X. A live poll will be available via @NBA throughout the entire first half of the NBA All-Star Game, whereby fans can vote for the player they want an iso-cam to follow during the second half. Adam Lefkoe will host the show with Channing Frye and Sydney Colson.

The evening's coverage will begin at 6 p.m. with a special two-hour NBA All-Star Tip-Off presented by

CarMax on TNT, TBS, truTV and B/R Sports on Max, featuring the iconic Inside the NBA studio team of Ernie Johnson, Charles Barkley, Shaquille O'Neal, and Kenny Smith.

2024 State Farm All-Star Saturday Night on TNT, truTV & B/R Sports on Max

Fans will also have multiple ways to watch all the State Farm All-Star Saturday Night festivities on Saturday, Feb. 17, starting at 8 p.m.

On TNT, TBS and B/R Sports on Max, Kevin Harlan, Reggie Miller, and Kenny Smith — in an expanded role throughout the night — will provide commentary during the Kia All-Star Skills Challenge, Starry 3-Point Contest, the much-anticipated Stephen Curry vs. Sabrina Ionescu 3-Point Challenge and AT&T Slam Dunk, with Allie LaForce conducting on-court player interviews. Inside the NBA's Shaquille O'Neal will be courtside at Lucas Oil Stadium capturing moments for the telecast and Bleacher Report with the Shaq Cam presented by AT&T.

On truTV and B/R Sports on Max, Adam Lefkoe will host Access 23 Jordan Brand ALTCAST, with eight-time All-Star and 2000 Slam Dunk Contest Champion Vince Carter, 10-time NBA All-Star Carmelo Anthony, five-time NBA All-Star Jayson Tatum, and other guests throughout the evening sharing their NBA All-Star experiences and hot takes on the participants of the competitions. Chris Haynes will also contribute with roving reports from the sidelines.

State Farm All-Saturday Night will tip off with a special 90-minute NBA Tip-Off presented by CarMax pregame on TNT, TBS, truTV and B/R Sports on Max with Johnson, Barkley, O'Neal, Smith and Green beginning at 5:30 p.m., including a guest appearance by rap icon Lil Wayne. Rooks will host a special NBAXLive postgame show with Crawford, Channing Frye and Funny Marco, following the conclusion of the competitions.

Week-Long truTV Primetime Sports Line-Up in Celebration of NBA All-Star 2024

Heading into the 22nd consecutive year of televising the NBA All-Star Game, TNT Sports will be offering up more than 35 hours of live and originally produced programming across truTV this week, in celebration of sports and culture.
